Questions for 10th and 12th Classes based on other books

5200. Dr. C. NARAYANA REDDY :
SHRI C. RAMACHANDRAIAH:

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the questions set for the 10th and 12th classes for CBSE students are mostly based on other books rather than the NCERT books;

(b) if so, the parameters fixed for this process; and

(c) whether the parameters are strictly followed while setting examination papers?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. VALLABHBHAI RAMJIBHAI KATHIRIA) : (a) and (b) CBSE has informed that the question papers of the CBSE are set in accordance with certain predetermined parameters covering the entire syllabus which is prescribed for the studies. CBSE also provides an elaborate design and blue print, which forms the basis for preparing question papers by the subject experts. However, it is always advisable to concentrate on NCERT books since these books provide required coverage of the prescribed syllabus.

(c) Yes Sir, the parameters are strictly followed by the CBSE which provides weightage in terms of marks to instructional objectives like knowledge/ understanding/application/skill; form of question (short-answer/essay-type); content units & level of difficulty. Beside this, CBSE also provides variety as well as choices in questions to the students.

Recognition to B.Ed. Colleges

5201. SHRI C. RAMACHANDRAIAH :
SHRI K. KALAVENKATA RAO :
